

MITCHELL DOWN ON OPERATORS

Strike Leaders Claim That They Incite the Men to Riots.

A DEEP LAID PLOT

They Want Soldiers There So the Miners Are Protected.

TROOPS VS. MINERS

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—Serious charges were made this morning by leading spirits in the strike situation against the operators on account of the recent riots. It is claimed that they have incited the trouble hoping to gain by it.

Mitchell Talks.
President Mitchell of the Mine Workers in a statement openly accused the mine operators of deliberately creating trouble at some point by opening small washeries in the hopes of securing troops there and then opening larger ones under protection.

Thus far today all remains quiet and the miners seem to be much more composed than they were the first part of the week. While there is some talking among the more fiery of the leaders Mitchell and others of his like are cautioning the miners against outbreaks.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 16.—Miners and troops clashed Friday night and for a time it looked as if there would be a serious fight. For nine minutes a company of infantry with fixed bayonets formed a hollow square about a nonunion workman whose life was in danger, while a big crowd of strikers stood about, hurling epithets and now and then a stone. Then the entire Twelfth regiment and a battalion of the Eight swept down from camp on the run, the crowd vanished into the darkness, and soon all was quiet.

Chase Nonunion Man.
The disorder was the result of a mob chasing an alleged unfair workman near the Philadelphia and Reading coal and iron company's washery in the southeastern part of the town. There were fifty or sixty men in the mob. As they chased the man up the railroad throwing stones at him the night watchman of the washery, named Anthony Finn, tried to rescue the man.

The watchman was promptly thrown into the creek running parallel with the railroad by some of those leading in the chase. The crowd kept after the workman and he ran to the Reading railroad station, where a company of infantry was on provost duty. The company was immediately called into formation and attempted to hold the crowd back.

Dispersed by Troops.
The mob caused a large crowd to gather from all directions and word was immediately sent to camp for reinforcements. When these arrived, three men, John Howe, Frederick Zimmerman, and Matthew Bronz, who are alleged to have been participants in the assault on the watchman and the workman, were arrested and taken to the town lockup. The troops were kept in the streets until a late hour. The men were later given a hearing and held in $500 bail.

PAPERS FIND FAULT WITH SENOR PALMA

Cuban President Is Accused of Incompetence, Ignorance and Weakness.

Havana, Aug. 16.—During the last few days several Havana newspapers have been making violent onslaughts upon the chief executive of the republic, accusing him of incompetence, ignorance and weakness in not having as yet done anything useful for the country. La Lucha claims that President Palma's promises to treat the various elements in Cuba alike have not been kept and declares that what the executive wants is to govern without law and to ignore the constitution. The paper says that in spite of the repeated requests of congress President Palma has not yet presented the budget.

La Discusion says that congress is wasting time lamentably and declares that a number of laws have been delayed either in the house of representatives or in the senate. Congress must do more work, says the paper, or the session will pass without the accomplishment of anything for the interests of the country.

In the house of representatives it was voted that none of the fortresses or arsenals of the Cuban republic could be leased or sold by the government.

PNEUMATIC TUBES FOR CHICAGO

Routes Are Defined by the Proposals of Two Firms—More Expense for Government.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Special—Bids for the route between the temporary postoffice the Illinois Central railway depot, the Twenty-second street station, the Armour station, and the stockyards station were $93,372 and $100,680, respectively, for the No. 10 and 8 tubes. For the route between the new postoffice, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad depot, and the Union depot, the Illinois Pneumatic company bid $25,300 and $25,870, respectively, for the No. 10 and 8 tubes.

Other Tubes
For the service between the new postoffice, the board of trade and the Union Depot, and a route between the new postoffice to the temporary office or postal station, and the Chicago & Northwestern railroad depot or proposed postal station in its vicinity the figures were $48,960 and $50,490, respectively, for the No. 10 and 8 tubes.

OVATION GIVEN BOER GENERALS

Leaders of the Defeated Forces Cheered in London.

HEARTY WELCOME

Visiting Heroes Will Have an Audience with King Edward.

TO VISIT AMERICA

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
London, Aug. 16.—The steamer Saxo from the Cape of Good Hope arrived at Southampton this morning with the Boer generals, Botha, DeLaroy and DeWet on board. Colonial Secretary Chamberlain, Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener and other distinguished Englishmen greeted them with a great ovation.

Crowds Large
There were large crowds of people on the docks and on board the boats that were in the harbor. The Boer Generals were received with every evidence of cordiality. The Boers and the English generals had a long private conversation together.

Will Visit King.
The generals were asked to visit the King on board the Royal yacht but declined as they were too tired. They will however go to Cowes tomorrow and have an audience. It was announced that they would visit the United States before they returned home.

DECIDE ON THE NEW CARRIAGE

Army Officers Favor the Disappearing Gun Carriage for Fast Service.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(Special).—After mature deliberation and thorough tests, the general carriage board has adopted a report favorable to the disappearing gun carriage system as compared with the barbetto type. This report will be finished in a few days and presented to Acting Secretary Sanger. Should the report be approved by Secretary Root upon his return from Europe it will dispose of the controversy over the Buffington-Crozier disappearing carriage, which caused such a fight in congress at the last session and resulted in the appointment of a special board to test the two systems.

The New Carriage
The decision of the board in favor of the disappearing carriage was the result of the last day's firing of the six, ten and twelve inch guns at Fort Wright several days ago, when the record for speed firing was beaten. Capt. Richard P. Davis, recorder of the board, recorded the intervals between the shots at each test, and in making up its report the board compared the records of firing with the guns of both systems.

Fast Time
The report shows that the remarkable firing of the ten inch gun on barbettes at Sandy Hook, when a baseball and football detachment fired ten shots in about twelve minutes, was beaten by the ten inch gun on a disappearing carriage at Fort Wright. The lowest interval between shots with the ten inch barbetto was 104 seconds, while with the ten inch disappearing gun the lowest interval was 47 1/2 seconds and the mean interval in the firing of thirty shots was 53 seconds.

After the firing of the fifth shot the primer stuck and caused a delay of 129 1/2 seconds.

Record Made
The record with the twelve inch gun at Fort Wright was equally remarkable, the mean interval of ten shots being only 58 1-10 seconds, much lower than the record made with the ten inch gun on barbetto. The mean interval of firing with the six inch gun as shown by the report was 20 seconds.

ALL QUIET OVER ALLEGED ASSAULT

The Negro Accused of Crime Is Captured by Sheriff and Lodged in Jail.

(Special To The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Aug. 16.—Wm. Carter, the negro, who assaulted Anna Zimmerman near Daro Thursday night was lodged in jail here this morning, having been caught near Lo di last evening. He says he was on his way to give himself up, being afraid of a mob. The excitement has died out and there is no further talk of lynching. Carter is ready to plead guilty to anything, but says he did not use force. District Attorney Dudgeon is doubtful whether a charge of rape could be made and the negro will not be arraigned until he has made a further investigation of the facts.

THE ANARCHISTS HAVE PLANS

After Emperor William of Germany From Letters Found.

VIENNA'S STORY

Austrian Newspaper Has Sensational Story of a Recent Attempt.

AFTER THE CZAR TOO

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
Berlin, Aug. 16.—The police are greatly excited over a number of unsigned letters found on a criminal in the court at Frankfurt. The letters contained notes seemingly concerning a plot to assassinate the Emperor during his stay at Homburg.

At Vienna
A local newspaper in Vienna prints an account of the attempted assassination of the Emperor of Germany and the Czar of Russia off Reval some days ago. It is claimed that five anarchists tried to board the German Imperial yacht off Reval while both the Czar and the German Emperor were on board and that they were frustrated.

Leader Captured
The leader of the five succeeded in getting on board the boat but was captured and forced to confess, so the story goes. The remaining anarchists made their escape.

LOVED THE GIRL, BUT DROPPED HER

The Romance of an Army Officer May Yet Cause Trouble for Him.

Washington, Aug. 16.—(Special).—Lieut. Louis J. Van Schalk, Twenty-seventh infantry, who is on leave of absence at Cobleskill, N. Y., and who is a brother of the Rev. John Van Schalk, the president's pastor, is in trouble. Lieut. Van Schalk recently returned from the Philippines where he was wounded. He is a son of an old New York family, and on his return to this country, his engagement to Miss Mabel Crouse of Altamont, N. Y., was announced.

Date Postponed
The ceremony was to take place on May 15. The bride's parents made all the necessary arrangements for the event, the trousseau being prepared, and everything in readiness for the celebration. Lieut. Van Schalk then discovered that he was not inclined to marry and some correspondence ensued between the bride's family and the young officer. The latter was persistent in his position in the matter, giving reasons which are entirely honorable to all concerned.

Notifies Department
Miss Crouse's father, Dr. Josse Crouse, has now written to the war department calling official attention to the incident and stating that he believes that departmental action should be taken in the matter. He reminds the war department of its interference and inquiry in two similar cases within the last year. In one incident the officer married the young woman with whom he had quarreled. In the other case the officer absolutely refused to marry and the explanation he gave the war department was sufficient to allow him to retain his place in the service, notwithstanding his refusal to keep his part of the agreement.

Will Be Ignored
So far as the matter has developed in the case of Lieut. Van Schalk it is probable that the incident will be allowed to pass into history of the officer as a romance with which his seniors in the military establishment have nothing to do.

Minister Tarte of Canada in a speech warned manufacturers against the advance of American commerce.

LETTER AT LAST HAS TURNED UP

Buckstaff's Letter Was Received by General Bryant This Morning.

(Special To The Gazette.)
Madison, Wis., Aug. 15.—A letter from Ex-Speaker Buckstaff and Senator Stout to Chairman Bryant of the Republican state central committee published this morning, relative to charges that money was contributed by the Ginn Book Co. to defeat Supt. Harvey, was not received by General Bryant until noon today. General Bryant says that he does not know just what he will do in the matter. "I will answer the letter as a matter of courtesy," he said. "As to the charges, I don't know anything about the matter."

Of the twelve candidates who took the state examination for county superintendent certificates here this week, only one T. J. Carroll of Saxony passed. Eighteen took the examination for state teachers' certificates and of these one, Ralph Klotz of Mt. Sterling, Wis., secured a life certificate, while limited or five year certificates are granted to five.

MANY PULPITS ARE NOW VACANT

Several New York Churches Are in Need of Clergymen at Once.

New York, Aug. 16.—(Special).—A large number of important pastorates and other clerical positions in New York and Brooklyn are vacant this summer, more than at any other time in recent years, and as most of them will be filled between now and January the city will see fifteen or more clergymen come to take positions paying from $2,000 to $10,000 a year. One of the most important positions vacant in the Episcopal church is the deanery of the General Theological seminary. The late Dean Hoffman received no salary and it is believed that his successor will receive $7,000 or $8,000 annually.

The Churches
The rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, is the most important vacancy on Long Island. The position is said to pay $10,000 a year. Grace Church, Brooklyn, is also in need of a rector. He will receive from $5,000 to $8,000 a year. Episcopal vacancies in Manhattan include the vicarage of St. Agnes' chapel, Trinity parish, about $5,000 a year; the rectorate of the church of the Epiphany, about $3,000 annually.

Want A Rabbi
Temple Emanuel has been looking for a principal rabbi for over a year to succeed Dr. Gotthell, now Rabbi Emeritus, and he will receive, it is said, $12,000 a year.

KING REVIEWS ENGLAND'S NAVY

Grand Maritime Display at Portsmouth Seen by Thousands.

GREAT WAR FLEET

Naval Review an Attractive Feature of Coronation Ceremonies.

AMERICANS PRESENT

(Special By Scripps-McLae.)
London, Aug. 16.—The Royal yacht Victoria and Albert with King Edward on board reviewed England's force of warships assembled at Portsmouth this afternoon. The royal yacht passed up and down the four lines of warships, four times followed by the fleet of yachts with the members of parliament, government officers and representatives of reigning families on board. The weather for the review was ideal.

FIFTEEN SHIPS ABSENT

Delay of Seven Weeks Lessens the Number in Fleet

London, Aug. 16.—Today's review was not as impressive nor as indicative of Britain's great naval strength as would have been the postponed one of seven weeks ago. There were 15 fewer ships in line, and the absentees included all England's examples of present day naval architecture. The most modern of the battleships was launched five years ago and an American boat of the Kentucky type would have been a match for any two of them. Of all the 109 vessels, not only one, the armored cruiser Sulek was really representative of England's new navy. With her nine inch guns and 7-inch armor and complement of 1100 men, she was almost a battleship.

Last Pageant

The last naval pageant in the Solent, between Portsmouth and the Isle of Wight, was when the body of Queen Victoria was being brought from Osborne on its last journey to London. It was then winter and the wooded shores of the Isle of Wight were bleak and leafless. The undraped ships, each with a single ensign at half mast, the slow throb of the minute guns, the silence of the watching crowds, all reflected the nation's woe. Today, all was changed. The air was that of midsummer, the Isle of Wight showed bright and verdant in its canopy of foliage. The ships in much greater number, were a mass of waving flags and banners, the quick measures of the bands and the joyful boom of salutes all reflected the great gala occasion of the reign.

Ships Anchored

The ships taking part in the review were anchored in line after line parallel to the Portsmouth shore. The rows of ships stood up, one behind the other, like boats in an amphitheater. Twenty-four small, low-lying torpedo boats and a number of training ships at the end of the line. There behind them rose 12 gunboats somewhat higher out of the water; then came a line of 21 majestic cruisers, and, towering above them, were 21 battleships. Beyond these monsters lay representatives of England's merchant marine and the warships of foreign nations.

Patrol Boats

Patrol boats kept a clear space all about this great fleet. At some distance toward Southampton were vessels almost without number, bearing spectators. They were of all sizes and kinds, from big Atlantic greyhounds, hired by speculators especially for the occasion, to small launches and dinghies, and they represented nearly every port in the British Isles. Along the Isle of Wight, "standing room" space was reserved for yachts and small vessels, and to the east, off No Man's fort, for craft bearing spectators from that direction. There were more than 200 large excursion boats and at least 500 other vessels. A few of the big ships had as many as 2000 sightseers aboard, and from that number they dwindled down to mere row boats, with half a dozen. Estimates agree that there are at least 100,000 spectators watching the review from the water.

Thousands Present

From very early in the morning people poured into Portsmouth and Southampton by special trains. Those who did not embark on vessels waiting there, took their places along the shore and upon such docks and buildings as afforded a view. The vessels were so strung out that excellent views could be obtained from almost anywhere, although a glass was necessary to see them all with any distinction. The royal guests not being expected until noon, every one had a good opportunity to examine the various ships making up the show. As an exhibition of the naval strength of the British empire, it was impressive. One realized that once cleared for action, these vessels which he saw in front of him, were defeating any single navy in the world. Yet they were only those belonging to the channel and reserve squadrons. The British naval strength in the Mediterranean, in China and in other parts of the world not having been depleted for the occasion. More impressive still there were at this

HARD COAL IS AT BIG PREMIUM

LOCAL DEALERS HAVE ENOUGH FOR ACTUAL NEEDS.

THE PRICES ARE WAY UP

Soft Coal is Now Being Freely Used, and Wood is in Great Demand.

Janesville residents who have depended in the past on anthracite coal for their winter's warmth will be obliged to devise a new means of heating unless they are willing to freeze during the cold months. Only those who have already laid in a great enough supply to last them until 1903, and those who order immediately, will be exempt from this rule. Dealers cannot buy a ton of coal any where, and one of them gave it as his opinion that there was not a sufficient quantity of that article of fuel in the city to last until November.

No Coal Anywhere.

For thirty days according to one local seller, it has been impossible to buy any coal. The strike has absolutely stopped all the coal from being mined or handled, and there is no possibility of any relief before a settlement is reached between the strikers and operators. Even then it would be impossible to relieve the local conditions before the first of September or even later. When the market is again opened up the railroads, the east, the large cities all will be served before the smaller places.

Will Use Other Fuel.

It is not probable however that any great hardship will be caused by this shortage. It simply means that other forms of heating will have a sudden and universal popularity. Dealers in oil stoves will profit by the strike. Wood merchants will too have a big market for their line. Soft coal has already risen greatly in common favor and gas as a heating agent will probably be given a more general trial than in the past.

Prices Soaring.

Coal is now selling in Janesville at $8.50, but it is not probable that the price will go very much higher. When the present supply is gone there will be no more coal until the market is again opened up. Of course there will be a slight rush for the coal for a short time after the mines again begin operation but as soon as the first excitement is over prices will resume a level rather above normal, but higher than at present. At least that is the opinion advanced by several of the local men who are most personally interested in the market.

WISCONSIN'S SPORTSMEN'S SHOW.

A great Sportsman's Show will be held in the Exposition Building at Milwaukee, from September 6th to 27th, 1902, inclusive. This show will be held under the auspices of the Milwaukee Industrial Exposition Association, the directors of which decided this year to make a display that would appeal particularly to lovers of outdoor life, and which would at the same time serve to make better known the attractions of Wisconsin as a field of sport and recreation.

Coming as it does at the opening of the season for field sports in Wisconsin, many sportsmen from other sections who visit the Northwest every autumn to hunt prairie chickens and partridge will doubtless lay their plans so that they can visit the Milwaukee Show. The date is, at the same time far enough from deer hunting season to enable the manufacturers to make a good impression on those who are planning to buy new outfits for the November shooting season in the north woods. All in all, the season is the best for a sportsman's show in this region, that could possibly have been selected.

In addition to the Sportsman's Show the management have concluded to add another class of goods which enter into every hunting and camping outfit, viz: Pure Food Products—All of the tinned meats, vegetables, etc., cereals, chocolate and malt beverages that enter into the outfit of a hunting or camping party will be shown in great variety. Every man, woman and child will find more things to interest him in the great Exposition building than were ever shown there before. The art galleries will as usual contain a splendid collection of pictures.

Osteopathy.

During my short practice in San Jose I have had some very interesting cases.

Mrs. C., a lady past fifty years of age, came to me for treatment. She had been suffering from epistaxis for three years. The hemorrhage did not appear at regular intervals, but seemed to come on generally when she was fatigued. Sometimes the loss of blood was considerable, making her weak for a time. On examination I found the muscles of the right side of the neck hard and contracted, and following my hand down the neck to the point of the right shoulder I found a tender spot. Then the lady told me three years ago she had been thrown from a buggy, falling on that shoulder. This fall seemed to be the cause of the trouble.

Confining my work to the neck and shoulder the case was cured in ten treatments.

Mr. M., a man twenty seven years old, came for treatment. He had been told that he had spinal trouble, and after various other methods had been treated by electricity, receiving but little benefit.

He was completely discouraged and disheartened having that tired feeling and being indisposed to do work feeling that his case was a hopeless one and that life was a burden to him. He weighed two hundred and five this being more than his normal weight.

On examination I found the muscles between the shoulders rather hard and contracted; tenderness in lumbar and sacral regions, slight piles, pain on movement of bowels and occasionally a little blood was passed.

At the end of the first week the patient had lost six pounds, and felt generally relieved. He continued to improve rapidly, and after fourteen treatments was discharged cured.

Life is no longer a burden to him, and he feels that he can enjoy the peace and happiness of this earthly existence as a man can who has health.

He said on leaving my office that he would always be ready to speak a good word for Osteopathy.

MEMORIAL DAY IS TO BE OBSERVED

United Workmen and Degree of Honor Lodges Will Honor Memory of Their Dead.

Members of Olive Branch Lodge No. 36 A. O. U. W. and of Laurel Lodge No. 2 Degree of Honor will observe their second annual Memorial day next Sunday, at which time the memory of deceased members of both lodges will be honored in an appropriate manner.

Members of the two orders will meet at their hall at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon and go to the cemetery in a body. There the graves of the deceased members will be decorated with flowers and appropriate services will be held. The service from the Degree of Honor ritual will be used, the A. O. U. W. joining with its auxiliary organization.

The Committee.
Mrs. George Cook is chairman of the Degree of Honor committee and she has as her assistants, Mesdames Schumacher, Bowen, Marshall and Klenow. The A. O. U. W. committee is John Heller, Fred Smith and Jacob Bick.

HOGAN SAYS NO GAMBLING

The Chief of Police Has Issued His Orders for Week of the Carnival.

Chief Hogan has been making the rounds of the different saloons, cigar stores and public places of the city during the last few days notifying the proprietors that no gambling games or sure thing snaps would be allowed to run during the carnival. The chief is very outspoken in this regard and says that he will see that his orders are carried out to the letter. He does not propose to have the town overrun by gamblers and crooks and will arrest the first person breaking the rule. He will see that the order of the council passed at its last meeting is strictly enforced and anyone violating it is liable to get into trouble.

MANUFACTURING MATERIALS.

The growth in the importation of manufacturers' materials and the increasing share which such materials form in the total imports, is the most remarkable feature of the foreign commerce of the United States in the fiscal year just ended. Manufacturers' materials formed in 1902, nearly one-half of the total importations and show a remarkable increase over preceding years, while other classes of imports show but a slight increase. A table, showing the importations by great classes in each year from 1880 to 1902, is printed in the annual report of the Chief of the Treasury Bureau of Statistics and affords an opportunity to study the growth in imports of manufacturers' materials and the growing share which they form in the total imports.

The Bureau of Statistics distributes (1) articles of food, and animals (2) articles in a crude condition which enter into the various processes of domestic industry (3) articles, wholly or partially manufactured, for use as materials in the manufactures and mechanic arts (4) articles manufactured ready for consumption and (5) articles of voluntary use, luxuries etc.

Combining the two classes of articles for use in manufacturing, those "in a crude condition" and those wholly or partially manufactured for use as materials in the manufactures and mechanic arts, it is found that the total value of importations for use in manufacturing, which amounted in 1881 to $217,571,551 were, in 1902, $418,776,681 or practically double the value of 1881. They formed in 1881, 33.44 per cent. of the total imports. In 1902 46.36 per cent. of the imports. This phenomenal growth becomes even more striking when it is compared with the growth in importation of all other articles than those for use in manufacturing. The table in the report of the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics which sets forth the imports by years, of the great groups above referred to, shows that the total value of "imports other than manufacturers' materials" amounted, in 1881, to $438,047,445 and in 1902 to $484,550,390 and formed, in 1881, 66.56 per cent. of the total imports and in 1902 but 53.64 per cent. of the total imports. Thus, while importations of manufacturers' materials have practically doubled from 1881 to 1902, importations of articles other than manufacturers' materials have increased but about 12 per cent.

The manufacture of iron and steel stands second of the nation's leading industries, with an aggregate product of $835,759,034. More than half the entire values, $434,445,250, are produced in the single State of Pennsylvania.—Mahan's Magazine, August.

DOINGS DOWN IN BELOIT

NEWS NOTES FROM THE LINE CITY.

RELAYS OF HORSES ARE USED

Ex-Assemblyman Huntley's Wild Ride to the Assembly Convention, Thursday.

(Special To The Gazette).
Beloit, Wis., Aug. 16.—Harry Gill, athletic trainer of Beloit college, is entered in the Scotch games at Boston today, Saturday. He will meet the cracks of the world. Gill took the record for the discus throw recently in Boston.

Street Superintendent.
The board of public works has appointed Alderman John C. Clark as superintendent of streets at a salary of $1,000 a year. Mr. Clark resigned as superintendent of the construction of the electric railway today and begins his new work on Monday.

20 Miles An Hour.
Ex-Assemblyman John Huntley, delegate to the convention held here on Thursday, made a heroic drive from his home in Avon. He forgot the hour of the convention and was not advised of the time until after twelve o'clock on Thursday noon, when he telephoned to Beloit and learned the hour was two o'clock. It was nearly a twenty mile drive to Beloit, but with a relay of teams Mr. Huntley accomplished the trip in time to cast his vote.

Big Ratification.
Almost such a crowd as greeted George M. Appleby upon his return from Janesville with the nomination for sheriff in his pocket, was out Thursday night to ratify the victory of young Al. J. Brittan, labor's successful candidate in the assembly convention. Speeches were made by Messrs. T. J. Lowrin, R. D. Hogan, D. Monahan, V. Cox, R. E. Walsh and other well-known union men.

Sims Boos.
John E. Boos, a young farmer living six miles from Beloit on the Madison road, and Alice E. Sims, whose parents reside three miles out on the Avon road, were married Monday evening of this week by the Rev. Howard Hanson of this city.

The Beloit Inter-State Fair next week will be of great interest to lovers of fast horses and prize stock. The exhibits are testing the space limit, and promise to entirely eclipse last year's show. The officials of the fair have consented to have a few running races on the card this year. The fair commences on Tuesday and ends Friday.

A DARING LOOPER.

Some of the Many Great Features With Forepaugh-Sells Circus.
It is an indisputable fact that Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers combined circuses have more entirely new and thrilling features than any show ever travelling in this country.

Among these may be mentioned the wonderful feat by Diavolo, who loops the loop on a bicycle, at once the most death defying and daring act ever presented before the public. Just as a child swings in a circle a bucket of water without spilling, so does dare-devil Diavolo sweep the circle at a frightful speed without falling. This feature alone created a profound sensation in New York City and all other cities where seen.

Then there are the Aurora Zouaves, the official interstate drill champions of the United States, who have just returned from a triumphant conquest of all continental Europe, where they were pronounced by nobility and royalty to be the best drilled soldiers in the world; Minton, the Marvel, the only man on earth who can and does ride a unicycle or a single wheel of a bicycle up and down a narrow spiral tower; the Four La Montes, the Five St. Leon and the Five De Luccas, the three troupes of all Europe's greatest acrobats; the Ten Peerless Potters, the Greatest Aerial Act on Earth; the Jackson Family Cycling Septette; Starr, the shooting star, who dashes down a ladder on an ordinary bicycle; the quartette of cakewalking horses who made the biggest hit of anything ever seen in the horse line at Madison Square Garden; an army of all-star clowns who divide the time between laughter and applause. All kinds of races are run in the great double hippodromes, and throughout the programme there is superb music by Merrick's magnificent military band.

It is indeed a wonderful consolidation, and there will not very many living in this community who will not want to see it when it exhibits here, on Thursday, Sept. 4.

GAVE A PRETTY LUNCHEON

Mrs. C. H. Gage Entertained in Honor of Mrs. J. C. Wilmarth.
Thirty young society ladies were the guests of Mrs. Charles H. Gage at a charming afternoon luncheon, given at her home, 303 South Second street, yesterday afternoon, in honor of her friend, Mrs. James C. Wilmarth, of El Paso, Tex. The company was an especially congenial one and the party was delightfully informal.

The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing six-handed euchre, the prize being won by Mrs. H. W. Frick. The two course luncheon, which followed the card playing, was a delicious one and it was prettily served.

ELECTRIC WIRE STARTS A FIRE

CAUGHT GROM THE WIRING

Maynard's Show Window Display Blazes Up, But Is Quickly Put Out.

The Maynard Shoe company had a close call for a disastrous fire this morning, caused by the window decorations being ignited by an electric light.

The large show window in the front of the store had been decorated in honor of the Elks' Carnival. An arch made out of light wood covered with tissue paper extended from one side of the window to the other. Electric lights were placed at different points about the arch for illumination and it was these lights that caused the trouble.

Current Starts Fire

Gail Nicholson was putting the finishing touches on the decorations, preparatory to putting in their shoe display and shortly after seven o'clock started screwing the incandescent lamps into the sockets. He had the lamps all in place but one near the west side of the arch and was putting this one in place when the fire started. He had the electric current turned on, so he could tell if the lamps were going to burn all right and as he screwed the last lamp into the socket a stream of fire blew out of one side of the socket and caught the tissue paper.

All Ablaze

In an instant he had a fire on his hands. He fought it for a minute with his hat and hands, but could not put it out. He called for help and people from the neighboring stores rushed in to his assistance. They soon had a number of pails of water on the scene, and had the blaze practically extinguished when the fire department arrived in response to a call from box 7.

Little Loss

The loss was nominal about the only damage done was the destruction of the window decorations and the scorching of the wood work. The shoes for display had not yet been put in the window so there was very little loss to stock.

The Queen and Her Pets.

Queen Alexandra is devoted to animals. She has quite a large aviary of doves and also goes in for poultry. Cockle, a fine old cockatoo, has the honor of being often regaled with sugar by his royal mistress. A few cats are included in the list of royal favorites, but dogs hold the largest share in Her Majesty's affections.

J. F. A. Pyre, of Madison, visited in the city today.

The Truth

Is told by most people. If it were not, the whole commercial and social fabric would fall to pieces. There are thousands upon thousands of people who testify to the cures effected by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

They are representative people in their communities. You would believe their word on any question of knowledge. They speak the simple truth when they testify that Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia, "weak" stomach and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition.

It cures when all other remedial means have failed. It cures perfectly and permanently. There is no alcohol in the "Discovery." It is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. There is nothing "just as good."

"I was a total wreck—could not eat or sleep," writes Mr. J. O. Beers, of Berryman, Crawford Co. Mo. "For two years I tried medicine from doctors, but received very little benefit. I lost flesh and strength, was not able to do a good day's work. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and when I had taken one bottle I could sleep, and my appetite was wonderfully improved. I have taken five bottles and am still improving."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, paper-covered, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Uncle Hezekiah on Golf.

"I don't see why they call golf a royal and ancient game," remarked the Cohoes philosopher, drunching a protuberant nail on the postoffice veranda with a well-aimed expectoration. "I never heard tell of it till two months ago, an' my folks hez lived right in this here county for sixty years. An' as for its bel'n' royal—it ain't played in no court like tennis—I don't see where thet comes in. An' if it is, it's agin the constitution and the flag."—Judge.

Wealth of the Cecils.

Five acres of land round Charing Cross, London, are held by the marquis of Salisbury. These acres were obtained by his ancestors 25 years ago for grazing land at the modest rate of $2.50 an acre for 500 years. What that little bargain has been worth to the Cecils it would be rather difficult to accurately compute.

Why It Is Cool Near Trees.

It is not shade alone that makes it cooler under a tree in summer. The coolness of the tree itself helps, for its temperature is about 45 degrees Fahrenheit at all times, as that of the human body is a fraction more than 98 degrees. So a clump of trees cools the air as a piece of ice cools the water in a pitcher.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FALL TRADE

STEEL IS IN URGENT DEMAND

Trade in Print Goods Is Delayed by Uncertainty Regarding Price of Cotton on Big Crop—Cereals Maintain High Level.

New York, Aug. 16.—"Prospects have greatly improved through the adjustment of numerous labor controversies, yet the anthracite coal strike situation is unchanged and supplies are nearing depletion. Distribution of merchandise has met with some interruption, owing to freight blockades, the volume of business being very heavy. Statistics of pig iron production on Aug. 1, according to Iron Age, are more satisfactory than might have been expected, in view of the great scarcity of fuel.

Output Shows Increase.

"A weekly capacity of 336,405 tons is 15,599 tons less than the high record of May 1. It is true, but compares favorably with all earlier dates and shows an increase of 32,618 tons over the output a year ago. These figures by no means suggest a serious setback in the industry, but rather emphasize the abnormal condition of demand which finds such a heavy yield inadequate. Southern furnaces have contracted so far in advance that they practically have withdrawn from the market, and all dates for deliveries are remote except where foreign arrivals are offered."

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade makes the foregoing summary of the trade situation. Continuing, the review says:

Steel in Demand.

"Pressure for steel is undiminished, and the urgency of domestic consumers is shown by additional imports of large size. Structural material is sought by carshops and bridge builders, while many office buildings and other steel structures are planned. Coke production in the Connellsville region exceeds 250,000 tons weekly, and outside ovens are also surpassing all records of activity.

"Shoe manufacturers at the east have received practically the full orders that will be placed, and new business is now restricted to sample orders in spring lines. Leather has again risen in price and sales were heavy during the past week, not only in sole, but also upper stock and belting butts. Recent violent advances in hides have been fully maintained, and large transactions occurred, while heavy Texas steers reached a new record price.

Hinges on Cotton Crop.

"Despite the very favorable reports from dry goods jobbers regarding the volume of business transacted, and the bright outlook for fall trade, conditions in primary market and at the mills are now devoid of incident. Buyers are still governed by the impression that a large cotton crop is assured and the resulting lower prices for raw material will bring better terms for goods. Holders thus far have made few concessions and consequently trading is dull, except specialties.

"Considering the official report of cereal crop conditions the firmness of quotations during the last week has been somewhat surprising.

"Failures for the week numbered 196 in the United States against 168 last year."

SPAIN DOES NOT WANT FRIARS

Opposition Develops Because They Favored the Rebellion.

Madrid, Aug. 16.—The Council of Ministers has decided to take action to induce the expelled Spanish-Philippine friars not to return to Spain. This step is due to popular agitation against the friars because of their desertion from the Spanish cause, first for the Filipino and then for the American.

MANY PERISH FOR COMMERCE

Millions of Australian Sheep Are Killed for English Market.

London, Aug. 16.—Henry Copeland, attorney general for New South Wales, denies that the drought in that region has been so bad as reported. He adds that while it is true that millions of sheep have perished in Australia, they have perished by slaughter for the benefit of English consumers.

Tin Workers to Reconsider.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 16.—Several lodges of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers have decided to reconsider the vote on the rebate proposition of the American Tin Plate Company, which was defeated overwhelmingly. Renewed efforts are being made to secure favorable action.

Two Boys Drown.

Cass Lake, Minn., Aug. 16.—George and Henry Heinz, young sons of Nic Heinz, fell from some boom sticks in Pike bay and were drowned. The parents are almost crazed with grief.

WORK OF KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Expulsion of John A. Hinsey Referred Back to Subordinate Lodge.

San Francisco, Aug. 16.—Two new members of the board of control of the endowment fund were elected by the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias. Frank Haskins of Wisconsin and Dr. John T. Satchen were chosen. The supreme tribunal passed upon a number of appealed cases. In the matter of the expulsion of John A. Hinsey, former president of the board of control, it was held that the subordinate lodge had jurisdiction, and the case will be remanded to that lodge.

The Supreme Temple of Rathbone Sisters elected these officers: Supreme chief, Belle Quinlan, Galesburg, Ill.; supreme senior, Mrs. Lydia A. Monroe, Riverside, Cal.; supreme junior, Mrs. Josephine Hall, Hudson, Mich.; supreme manager, Mrs. M. F. Cushing, Milwaukee; supreme mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. N. Josephine Nelson, Union City, Ind.; supreme mistress of finance, Mrs. Anna M. Young, Zanesville, Ohio; supreme protector, Mrs. L. A. Farley, Kansas City; supreme guard, Mrs. J. T. Cotton, Weatherford, Texas.

STORMS IN NORTH CAROLINA

Electrical Disturbances Cause Much Damage in the State.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 16.—Severe electrical, wind, hail and rain storms have raged in this vicinity for three nights. At Statesville a hotel was struck by lightning and destroyed. At Concord the St. Andrews Lutheran church was blown down. The Odell cotton mills were damaged $6,000 worth. The Liphard mill was unroofed and the Cannon manufacturing plant was damaged to the extent of $2,500.

Denies Royalist Plot.

Paris, Aug. 16.—A member of the Duc d'Orleans political bureau, speaking for Manager Paul Bezie, emphatically denies the statement made in the meeting of the council of ministers that the congressional agitation is due to a royalist plot.

Insane Soldiers.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Ten insane soldiers, whose mentality became impaired while serving in the army in the Philippines, were conveyed to the government hospital for the insane. They came from the Presidio hospital in California.

Duke is Despondent.

Munich, Aug. 16.—Duke Siegfried is very despondent since the Austrian Grand Duchess, Maria Annunciata, refused to marry him, and it is feared he will go insane. The Archduchess has definitely adopted a religious career.

Blocks Three-Cent Fare.

Cleveland, Aug. 16.—Mayor Johnson's 3-cent fare plans were effectively blocked by the Supreme Court, which tied up the city council by granting an injunction asked for by the attorneys of the two street railways of Cleveland.

Loot a Postoffice.

East Palestine, Ohio, Aug. 16.—A gang of robbers blew open the postoffice safe and secured about $600 in stamps. The explosion aroused the citizens and an exchange of shots took place, but the robbers escaped.

Edinburg Honors Canadians.

The municipality of Edinburg conferred the freedom of that city to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, and Sir Robert Bond, premier and colonial secretary of Newfoundland, on the occasion of their last visit there on July 26 to receive degrees from the university.

GOLD STRUCK IN GAGE'S MINE

Former Secretary of the Treasury Rewarded for His Faith.

Denver, Aug. 16.—Lyman J. Gage, after spending money for twenty-five years on the Brainard Mine at Boulder, has finally struck a rich lead that will more than compensate him for his heavy loss by the decline of silver. The strike was made simultaneously with the arrival of the former secretary at his mine, when gold sulphides in a vein eight feet wide were struck in the Alaska claim. There is a rich pay streak, averaging fifteen inches in width, and it is estimated that the whole vein will run $160 to $200 a ton. For twenty-five years Mr. Gage and Wesley Brainard, his brother-in-law, have been partners in a very considerable enterprise about a mile and a half below the mining camp of Ward. One of the mines, the Mottke, has a very large body of silver ore, and in times past paid immensely.

INVEST CAPITAL IN MICHIGAN.

Boston Men Are Interested in Houghton County Property.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 16.—The Houghton County Electric Light Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $1,300,000. Lawrence A. Ford of Beverly, Mass., is a majority stockholder. Boston men are interested in the Houghton County Street Railway Company and Peninsula Electric Light and Power Company, which will be taken over by the new organization.

SENATORS ADDRESS IRISH-AMERICANS

MASON SAYS THEY ARE LOYAL

Challenges Any One to Show a Celt in the Ranks of the Anarchists—Declares His Attitude Toward Boers Has Caused Ostracism.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—"We want to fight against this tyranny by physical or moral forces. Stick together, arouse public opinion and make a fight for it. Pull together and you will win."

This was the advice given by United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina to Irish nationalists assembled in annual picnic. Three thousand people, gathered in Oswald's grove, Fifty-second and Halsted streets, endorsed the sentiment with their cheers.

"The Irish are like a team of horses," continued Senator Tillman. They are prone to pull in a zigzag manner. One pulls and then the other. If you, the Irish-American, and the Irish of other countries, contribute your moral forces and your physical forces the question of Irish independence would be solved as soon as you could pull together. Take Johnny Bull by the throat and force him to his knees.

Urges United Action.

"God did not make Ireland slave to England any more than he made the thirteen colonies slave to the same country, and some day Ireland will throw off the yoke, as did those brave men of 1776."

"I don't see what can become of this agitation for Ireland in America unless some action is taken. Back your resolutions up with action. I think that England should be made, forced, to feel public opinion in every possible way. She has no longer the right, nor never had, to put Ireland under the heels of English landlords and nobles and grind her to death."

Attack on Redmond.

John Mack Sullivan of New Haven, Conn., at the evening meeting, attacked the purposes of those who are content to fight Ireland's battles in the halls of parliament, as is being done by John Redmond.

"What a spectacle the Irish people would present to the world," he declared, "if they at last became united in supplicating England for money and a crumb! With a history such as no conquered country on earth can boast of, it is an unthinkable proposition."

Is Against Weakness.

"How long would that nationality have lasted had we kissed the hand of the conquerors, as this latter day convert to constitutional agitation would have us do, and meekly depend on their generosity for permission to live?"

"O'Connell failed, and, as his successor, John Redmond will fail. Constitutional agitation has always been a failure. The present one will follow those which have gone before. The Redmond government will fail."

Senator Mason Talks.

While aggressive action was advocated at Oswald's grove, the United Irish Societies, assembled in the old Sunnyside park, endorsed the work of John Redmond and his followers in parliament. United States Senator William E. Mason was the principal speaker here and was given a rousing welcome.

"No nation is good enough to govern another nation without its consent," said the Senator, a statement that brought the crowd to its feet.

Irish Are Loyal.

Mr. Mason said the Irish-Americans were the most loyal Americans. "Did you ever hear of an Irish man turning an anarchist?" questioned the speaker. "There is not a case on record."

He said that when he had denounced the Boer war on the senate floor at Washington after he had been criticized and had been made the butt of ridicule, he could go to just two places. To his wife and children and to his Irish-American friends.

IS INJURED IN LODGE TACTICS

Commander of Knights of Maccabees Victim of Accident.

Iowa Falls, Iowa, Aug. 16.—Henry Snyder, commander of the Knights of the Maccabees at Alden, has been unconscious since Wednesday night as a result of an accident that followed a big meeting. It is claimed by those present that Snyder was injured by a blow or fall that inflicted a wound on the head that rendered him unconscious. It is claimed by some that the man was being "coached" in lodge work when the accident occurred.

Louisville in Darkness.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 16.—For thirty minutes Friday afternoon Louisville was in darkness, preceding one of the worst storms of the year. The wind blew at the rate of fifty-eight miles an hour, nearly an inch of rain fell in fifteen minutes and the temperature dropped twenty degrees.

Calumet Baking Powder

Perfect in quality. Moderate in price.

GUN POWDER SENT TO PATTISON

Infernal Machine Mailed to Former Governor of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.—An attempt upon the life of Robert E. Pattison, former Governor of Pennsylvania, and the present Democratic nominee for that office, was made during the week, and the news has just now come to light. An infernal machine containing several pounds of gunpowder in a contracted and highly powerful form was sent to him by mail. The senders had neglected to place the means of ignition in the parcel, trusting to circumstances for the working out of the dastardly plot.

NEW TORPEDO BOAT IS SPEEDY

Destroyer Chauncey Makes 29.51 Knots on Its Trial Trip.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 16.—The new torpedo boat destroyer Chauncey returned here after a successful trial trip. The figures "29.51" painted on the smokestack represented the maximum speed in knots attained. The boat made an average speed of 28.64 knots in the four trial runs, and during the endurance trial of one hour averaged 26.80 knots, or nearly one knot above the speed requirement.

ABSOLUTE FAITH.

You can depend upon the word of this Janesville Citizen.

He has had the experience. He has thoroughly tested the article.

He has found it as represented.

He has absolute faith in its merit.

Mr. L. Lawrence, of 408 S. Franklin st., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says:

"Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Afton, into the Rock River. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through, and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells, sometimes very severely. If I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting, the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the People's drug store and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than at any time since falling through the bridge."

Sold for 50 cents per box by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Also on sale at King's Pharmacy. Remember the name. "Doan's," and take no other.

BORROWED TROUBLE.

"You mark my words. It ain't no use puttin' up yer umbrell until it rains."

"That's right; set right down there by the window. It's pretty soon to day it makes you feel good clean down yer back."

"I believe you always feel that way," said Lucy pulling off the gloves.

"Don't you ever worry over things," Mrs. Wiggs grew serious. "I'm lonesome for Jimmy all the time," she said simply. "Some people go right under, when trouble comes, but I carry mine fur an' easy."

"I don't mean grieving," said Lucy. "I mean worrying and fretting."

"Well," yes," admitted Mrs. Wiggs, taking a hot iron from the stove. "I've done that, too. I remember once, last winter I was taken sick, an' I got to pesterin' 'bout what the children 'ud do if I died. They wasn't no money in the house, an' they didn't know where to git none. All one night I laid there with my head 'most bustin' jes' worryin' 'bout it. By an' by I was so miserable I ast the Lord what I mus' do, an' he tole me. Nex' mornin' 'spon's an' I could i vent over to the 'spon's an' ast for the child doctor."

"Doctor," I sez, "don't you buy corpses?"

"Yes," sez he, lookin' kinder funny. "Well," sez I, I want to sell mine."

"Then I tole him all 'bout it, an' ast him if he wouldn't take my body after I was gone, an' give me the money to the children."

"Will you put it in writin'," sez he. "Yes," sez I, if you'll do the same."

"So he drawed up the papers, an' we both signed, an' a man with a spline in his back an' a lady with the rheumatiz witnessed it. So you see," concluded Mr. Wiggs, "I didn't die; you mark my words, it ain't never no use puttin' up yer umbrell 'till it rains."

This little sketch from "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"—a little book by the way, that is well worth reading—is full of sound philosophy. The old lady's life was so full of real trouble, that she never had time to borrow any and yet she always found the bright side of misfortune.

It does not require a very astute mind to discover, that trouble is the common lot of humanity, neither does it require unusual mental endowment to note the fact that borrowed trouble is a great deal more common than real.

A bank account, or any other sort of property is not necessary for a man to be long on credit when it comes to borrowing trouble, neither is property, or financial condition any safeguard against this useless habit that many people cultivate so strenuously.

People borrow trouble, who would hesitate to borrow an umbrella, and who would feel that they were on the verge of financial ruin, if compelled to borrow money.

It is the one commodity that the sun never blights, and an early frost always finds the crop mature.

Many people enjoy trouble as the old lady enjoyed poor health. If he season is a little short, and their own perplexities don't come quite fast enough, they never hesitate to borrow of the neighbors, and if the neighbors are short, they find no difficulty in helping them to stock up.

Real trouble is bad enough and the average life has more or less of it to contend with, but borrowed trouble is infinitely worse, because it is entirely destitute of satisfaction.

It is possible to meet real trouble in the same spirit that Mrs. Wiggs adopted, but the disposition that borrows trouble never looks for the bright side of anything.

Some people are twenty years in dying. Every ache and pain that attacks the body is a sign of dissolution. They diagnose their own case so thoroughly that there is nothing left for the physician, and with all their information they ignore the laws of health and court disease.

There is only one satisfaction in borrowing trouble, and that is found in the fact that the supply is always equal to the demand. There is never any contraction and the market is never overpressed. If it isn't in sight, imagination assists vision, and it is just as real.

The trouble with humanity is, that we live too little in the present, and too much in the future, forgetting the fact that today is the only day of promise. Not that life is a butterfly existence, it is more serious than that, but with all the seriousness it would be infinitely better if more of the butterfly spirit entered into it.

There are too many homes where all the planning is for old age. Somewhere in the uncertain future, ambition will be satisfied, and then the last few years of worn out life will be devoted to rest and enjoyment.

Delusive hope. The man and woman who are so absorbed in getting and saving that no time is given to living, will never reach an age when they will be content to take life easy. The chances are that one of them will drop out about the time they have planned to rest, and the survivor will wake up to the fact that money and property while substantial reminders, are a poor substitute.

In some homes the children are a source of constant anxiety, and no end of trouble is borrowed on their account. While the average child may not be an angel, it is safe to predict that with ordinary care and the use of a little common sense developments will be along right lines.

The young people that are maturing every year and taking up the burdens of active life are a credit to the average home. Children do not need training half as much as they need guiding and if the energy devoted to worrying and borrowing trouble about them, was directed to the channels of cheerfulness, it would be better for the child.

It is a mistaken notion that American children are degenerating, and that the boys and girls of today are in anyway inferior to other generations. If there is any degeneracy it is on the part of the parents.

Conditions have changed and the age is progressive. Modern society makes demands on the home that not infrequently tend to neglect, and child life suffers in consequence but the child is not responsible for these changed conditions.

He adapts himself to circumstances and makes the best of his surroundings. The street and the neighborhood may not be a good substitute for the home but they are readily adopted where occasion demands.

The state is just now well represented with people who are borrowing a great deal of trouble about the future of the commonwealth. One element believes that if LaFollette is elected governor that a reign of populism will result.

Another, believes that if he is defeated that with his defeat will go the last remnant of much needed reform, and "God's patient poor" will become too poor to long exist.

Democracy is carrying a double load of real and borrowed trouble. The party has not yet recovered from the effects of Bryanism and there is nothing visionary about that king of trouble.

The party is fearful however that if this era of republican and protective prosperity continues, that a foothold can not be gained in twenty years and so they are full of borrowed trouble.

The fact does not seem to have dawned upon the party, that the nation, like many individuals can not long endure prosperity and that the signs of the times plainly indicate that another reign of democracy will soon be in order.

A feeling of unrest prevails throughout the country. Capital and corporations are denounced, labor is dissatisfied. Strikes are the order of the day and the refrain of the same old song, "We want a change" is already in the air.

About four years more of unameliorated democracy, with idle factories, free trade heresies and soup houses will be the next thing in order, and there is no occasion for borrowing trouble on this score.

The advice of Mrs. Wiggs is good on any proposition.

"It ain't never no use puttin' up yer umbrell 'tel' it rains."

WISCONSIN DEMOCRACY.
Wisconsin democracy is considerably exercised just now over a state ticket, or at least as to who shall be at the head of it. Unusual interest is manifest because of confidence in ability to win on account of strife in the republican party.

It is doubtless true that some of the party leaders are honest in this conviction, while many of them realize that the case is hopeless. Mayor Rose, Burr Jones, Neal Brown and a number of other prominent candidates are ready to enter the race, and take chances.

These gentlemen fail to recognize the fact that however largely they may draw on the conservative wing of the republican party, that LaFollette was nominated by democratic votes and that he will have a large following in the populist element of that party.

Politics in Wisconsin just now is a mixed proposition. Prejudice against capital and corporations, has been aroused and crystallized by a lot of senseless twaddle, and the state is in for at least two years more of LaFolletteism.

LaFollette will be elected by from 20,000 to 40,000 majority and the only way to control him is by electing a republican legislature that is opposed to his visionary schemes.

The republican party is not ready to turn the state over to democracy. The element in the party represented by General Winkler can not be read out of the ranks; and it will have a voice in the legislative branch of government.

The platform is a farce so far as the Spooner and primary election law is concerned. And it is simply a bid for votes on the taxation problem. Everybody believes in equitable taxation. That is not a reform proposition. The one mill tax which fleeced the farmers out of $800,000 is a sample of modern reform.

This will not be democrat year in Wisconsin, LaFollette controls it, bad enough, and a humiliation to the state, but democracy let loose would be infinitely worse. The ticket nominated at Madison will be elected.

If any one but a millionaire possessed the nerve to run an automobile over a country road at sixty miles an hour, popular sentiment would say, he will withdraw from the gubernatorial race, and take off his coat and go to work for the nominee of the convention. This will put him in line for the future and eventually land him in congress. He can't be elected governor this year.

Santos Dumont, the French air tourist has discovered that Americans are too busy to spend any time on that sort of transportation. He has returned to Paris with a grievance.

The Beloit district will send a Spooner man to Madison, with a LaFollette string attached.

Alex White of the First district is for Spooner unconditionally. He also possesses common sense.

What would Edgerton be without a Gottle?

PRESS COMMENT.
Caskosh Northwestern: And where is that parson for Mrs. Maybrick that was promised as one of the boons to be granted in connection with the coronation of King Edward?

Sheboygan Telegram: The small anti-imperialist squad is continually double quick from point to point trying to keep up with the progress of events and the forward movement of the public.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Too much reading is given as the cause of the downfall of a New England young man who became a burglar. "Until a list of the culprit's favorite authors are published Sir Conan Doyle and Mr. Hornung will be under suspicion."

Madison Democrat: Mayor Rose has some of the characteristics of a republican. He has forgotten his pledge given the last time he ran for mayor that he would seek for no other office while he held that position. Der Herald, which is his friend advises him to announce speedily that he is not after the office of governor.

Neenah Times: The Oshkosh Times is "rooting" for David S. Rose for governor. In this matter at least the Times is consistent. It is very proper for a newspaper that has been flinging mud at Hon. William J. Bryan for the past two years should advocate the nomination of a man who as a delegate to the ansas City convention declared that, alluding to Mr. Bryan, "this dying for principle is all rot!"

Wausau Pilot: We believe Mr. Brown will be gladly welcomed in to the contest by many democrats, whose judgement is that we can not win by reason of disaffection among republicans, but must win, if at all, by putting forward as our leader a strong and clean man who can poll the full democratic strength in his state. There are many democrats who sincerely believe that Mr. Rose cannot do this, strong though he may be, and is, in the city of Milwaukee.

Appleton Crescent: Rose men in Milwaukee claimed that the Neal Brown candidacy was merely for the purpose of heading off the Rose movement in the northern part of the state and not an earnest candidacy; that Rose was already too far in the lead to be beaten for the nomination by any other democrat. All of which is merely a game of political bluff. Neal Brown is in earnest. He would not lend himself to any scheme for the sidetracking of another candidate. He is not built that way.

Antigo Republican: The Merrill Advocate this week comes into the opening and advocates the knifing of the head of the ticket. Its bitter partisanship all the spring has probably made this a logical position. Other stalwart papers have generally accepted the fact that LaFollette is the nominee of the republican party by an overwhelming majority without any irregularity or quibble, and as loyal republicans bow to the will of the majority. But the Advocate, well, it seems to be a law unto itself.

La Crosse Press, Dem.: One of the gratifying developments of the canvas preceding the holding of the democratic state convention is the of the state towards the German friendly attitude of the Germans of the state towards the suggestion that ex-Mayor Anderson of LaCrosse is the strongest available candidate for the democratic nomination for governor. The German newspapers are commenting upon the prospective candidacy of Dr. Anderson in a way that leaves no room for doubt as to his strength among the Germans at the polls, and individual Germans throughout the state are writing to Dr. Anderson's friends in this city in a similar vein. There is no other democrat in Wisconsin who can so perfectly combine and organize all of the forces opposed to LaFolletteism as Dr. Anderson.

Appleton Post Rep.: With Robert M. LaFollette and Neal Brown as the opposing candidates for the governorship this year, the campaign in Wisconsin would attract national attention. But we believe that Mr. Brown has no chance of winning the nomination, because the democratic party seldom does such a sensible thing. It will more likely turn to Dave Rose, the arch-political demagogue of Wisconsin, as its leader, and from a purely selfish standpoint, republicans could wish this to be done because while Gov. LaFollette is certain to be elected anyway with Rose as his opponent the campaign would be nothing less than a picnic for him.

Marquette Star: Wisconsin is not the only state that is trying to get the railroads to pay their fair taxes. The state of Montana has levied an increase of $140,000 on the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific, and those companies are squirming hard to avoid the payment. These lines were merged from a valuation of $52,800 per mile of track, and that is the valuation upon which they promise to pay dividends, but they object to paying taxes on one-third of that valuation. One of the reasons they can pay dividends on watered stock is because they do not pay taxes on any where near the real value of their roads.

ROCKFORD WINS GOLF MATCH

DEFEATS SINNISSIPPI PLAYERS ON HOME GROUND.

MANY ACCOMPANY THE TEAM

Rockford Club Entertains Visitors Most Royally at Supper, After Contest.

The Rockford country club golf players were victorious yesterday over a team from the Sinissippi golf club by a score of 31 to 21. The Rockford players were at home on their own course and proceeded to even up the beating given them in this city a short time ago. The outcome of the match was a surprise to the Janesville players as they were confident of winning.

Only four of the Janesville players came in "up" they being Al Schaller, A. Sutherland, C. C. MacLean and Charles Schaller. The rest of the team have no apologies to offer for their defeat. They were treated like gentlemen and were fairly beaten. The feature of the game was a score of 82, put up by Albert Schaller, which is one of the best scores ever made on the links by an amateur.

Good Course
The course is a fairly good one, with lots of bunkers and natural hazards. The turf is good on the most of the fair greens and presented no unusual conditions to the visitors. It is about six hundred yards shorter than the Sinissippi course, the distances varying from 200 yards up to 315. It should be an easy course for the Janesville team.

Crowd From Here
The Janesville delegation left here at 8:20 over the Northwestern and did not arrive in Rockford until almost noon. They were delayed at Harlem, a small station six miles this side of Rockford by the engine giving out and had to wait until a switch engine was sent out from Rockford to pull them into the city.

Well Treated
The visitors are loud in their praise of the way that the Rockford people treated them. They were met at the Northwestern station by a delegation of club members and a special trolley car was in waiting to carry them out to the Country Club, where an excellent dinner was served by Chef Loucks.

Entertain Ladies
During the afternoon while the match was in progress, the ladies of the party were entertained at the club house by the lady members of the Country Club, and a progressive game of cards, ping pong, parlor croquet were indulged in. Russian tea with light refreshments was also served so that the ladies had as pleasant a day as the gentlemen. At the conclusion of the match supper was served to the visitors, after which they took the train for this city where they arrived at 10:25 at night.

The line up of the two teams and the score was:

HORSE SHOERS GO TO MILWAUKEE

One Hundred and Fifteen from Janesville Went to the Capital City This Morning.

One hundred and fifteen tickets for the horse show excursion to Madison today were sold by the Northwestern. The horse shoers and their families and friends were joined here by the Beloit delegation and formed a jolly crowd out for a day's pleasure. They could not have selected a more pleasant place for holding a picnic than on one of the beautiful lakes at Madison, and their outing was one round of pleasure from start to finish.

No Young Man.

News comes from Budapest that the quaint ceremony of bestowing the silver rose of virtue to the most innocent maiden above 16 in the county of Solymar will be abandoned this year because, while there are maidens in plenty, there are no marriageable young men in the county that would fit the requirements. The crown maiden, according to the statutes, should at the same time be formally betrothed to a worthy peasant boy and receive a considerable dowry.

MRS. VALENTINE GIVES LUNCHEON

ENTERTAINS LADY FRIENDS IN A NOVEL MANNER.

CHATTED OVER NEEDLEWORK

Readings by Miss Woodruff and Songs by Mrs. Hayden Give Guests Pleasure.

One of the most delightful of the summer social gatherings, because so decidedly different in every detail from the ordinary afternoon luncheon, was given yesterday when Mrs. Richard Valentine entertained about 25 of her lady friends at her home, 156 South Second street. The guests were invited to bring their needle work and it proved a most successful method of promoting sociability, the ladies finding the most genuine pleasure in chatting over their sewing.

Readings by Miss Amy Woodruff of this city and vocal solos by Mrs. A. G. Hayden of Milwaukee, added infinitely to the pleasure of the guests. Mrs. Hayden, who is Mrs. Valentine's sister, sang three selections exquisitely, the songs which she chose being "Slumber Boat" and "The Jap Doll" by Jessie Gaynor and "A Japanese Love Song" by Clayton Thomas. Her accompaniments were played by Miss Julia Wilson.

Miss Woodruff read "When My Ships Come Home" by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, followed by a humorous selection, and later she gave the court scene from "To Have and To Hold." Her reading was very artistic and it gave special pleasure to Mrs. Valentine's guests because it was the first opportunity that the ladies had enjoyed of hearing Miss Woodruff since her recent graduation from the Columbian School of Oratory, of Chicago. Miss Woodruff intends to adopt teaching and public reading as a profession.

About six o'clock Mrs. Valentine served a very dainty supper for her guests. The floral decorations at the tables and throughout the parlors were unusually artistic. Mrs. Valentine possessing rare skill in the arrangement of flowers.

ADKINS PITCHES GREAT BALL GAME

Plays with Milwaukee League Team, and Denver Batters Fail To Make a Hit.

Merle T. Adkins, the great Beloit twirler at one time with Janesville, proved an awful disappointment at the Milwaukee base ball park yesterday to the Beloit-Yougos who had remarked with glee on the fact that he had been turned off by the Bostonians and predicted a speedy close to his career. In a game against Denver, the one time leaders of the Western League, he sent the visitors out without a solitary hit, and only one man got far enough to stand on the bag at first. The final score was three to nothing.

Best Ever
But once before in the history of the grounds had such a record been furnished of a game in which there was no hitting for the vanquished, and that time it was the visiting team that came out with flying colors. The contest, the battle between Adkins and Eyer in the pitcher's box was royal, and up to the seventh inning both teams were playing baseball par excellence with only one run for the Angels and none for the Denverites. Then the Creams began to find the ball and two more runs were tallied to their credit. The final score gave Adkins seven men struck out, and Eyer three.

BIG EXCURSION TO MILWAUKEE

The Janesville Machine Company Have Four Hundred on Their Outing Today.

Four hundred excursionists left Janesville this morning on the Janesville Machine company's excursion to Milwaukee over the St. Paul road. The day was perfect for an excursion and the spirits of the crowd were in keeping with the day. The special train of eight coaches and a baggage car in charge of Conductor Cal Westbury left Janesville at 7:45. W. W. Winton, district passenger agent and agent, W. A. Johnson, accompanied the excursion to see that the passengers were properly taken care of. The trip to Milwaukee includes a steamboat ride on Lake Michigan and also a trip to White Fish Bay. The excursion will leave Milwaukee tonight at 8 o'clock.

WILL GO TO DULUTH

September Sixth The Date Set For A Delightful Outing

One of the most popular excursions of the season will be the one on September 6 over the Northwestern to Duluth. The excursion train will leave here Saturday night and the tickets will be good for return up to Monday night. This excursion will give the people of Janesville a chance to visit the northern part of the state at a reasonable rate and give them two days in the city.

Madison Journal, Rep.: The Burr W. Jones proposition pleases folks. If the democratic party is wise it will head its ticket with the wise and discreet Madison lawyer.

Locusts Cause Great Loss.
The Rocky Mountain locust, or grasshopper, in 1874 destroyed $100,000,000 of crops of Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa, and the indirect loss was probably as much more.

MANY SET LINES IN ROCK RIVER

GAME WARDEN PETER DRAFAHL TELLS OF VIOLATIONS.

JOHNSON AT KOSHKONONG

Careful Watch Will Be Kept This Fall on the Illegal Hunters.

Game warden, Peter Drafaul, was in the city yesterday after a trip around the country looking for violators of the game laws. He stated that he had experienced considerable trouble of late with people living along the river all the way from Koshkonong to Beloit, who were fishing with set lines.

Finds Set Lines
He has found any number of lines along the river and in a great many cases has come upon the owners when they were running them. So far he has contented himself with taking up the lines and destroying them, but hereafter anyone caught violating the law will be punished if such a thing is possible.

Will Break System
The game wardens are determined to break up the use of set lines and has orders from headquarters to punish all violators of this section of the game law. So far this year Warden Drafaul has taken and destroyed over five miles of line in Rock river and Lake Koshkonong.

After Law Breakers
Captain C. W. Johnson of Oshkosh is again back on the force and will be at Lake Koskonong all the fall after the duck hunting season opens. Cap. is one of the best wardens that has ever been on Lake Koskonong and will make the hunters obey the laws.

Art League Picnic: Sixteen members of the Art League held an outing yesterday at Glenwood Springs, Lake Geneva, as the guest of Mrs. P. J. Mount. They had a delightful time and enjoyed a fine picnic dinner and a ride about the lake on a steamboat.

Want To Feed Elks: D. W. Watt had a number of parties yesterday, who were anxious to get the job of carrying hay to the Elks next week.

CLARENCE H. MACKAY, NEW HEAD
OF GREAT ESTATE.Successor of the Bonanza King in Familiar With Large Business
Operations—Fond of Society and Athletic Sports.

Clarence Hungerford Mackay, only surviving son and principal heir to the great fortune left by the "bonanza king," for a number of years has been prominent in social, financial and sporting circles. Although he is only twenty-eight years of age, he has already developed great business acumen and is regarded as a fitting successor in the world of business to his acute and far-seeing father, whose rise from humble miner to a recognized power in the affairs of the world reads like a romantic tale.

The new head of the Mackays was born in San Francisco. While still a child he was taken abroad, and his education was gained in England and France. His sojourn in Europe, however, has in no way affected his loyalty to his native land, and since coming of age he has made his home in this country.

Mr. Mackay has been for years—since his college days, in fact—identified with the vast business interests of his father. He is a director in the Commercial Cable and Telegraph company and the Postal Telegraph company, of both of which the elder Mackay was president. Mr. Mackay is also vice president of the former and fourth vice president of the latter company, and it is believed that he will succeed his father at the head of these concerns. Of late years the elder Mackay shifted much of the burden of management to the shoulders of his son. The latter has also been connected with other commercial interests and has shown great aptitude for business life.

The social position of the Mackays is of the highest both in America and in England. Much of their prestige is due to Mrs. John W. Mackay and to

GUARDS GIVE BAIL.

Duryea Deputies Released on Bond by Judge Halsey.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—The twenty-five deputies on guard at the Warnke washery, Duryea, when the riot took place Thursday, and who were arrested and jailed by the authorities on the charge of inciting a riot and felonious wounding, were given a hearing before Judge Halsey. It was shown that the two men shot were not seriously wounded. Judge Halsey then released the prisoners in the sum of $10,000 for a further hearing. The bail was promptly furnished and the men released.

Striker Under Arrest.

The first of a series of arrests to be made by the Citizens' alliance of Hazelton on account of the wrecking of the home of a nonunion worker named Huffman was made, the prisoner, Michael Maravitch, being held for a hearing. It is stated that he is the leader of the attacking party.

Charged With Libel.

Patrick McGarvey and Victor Dougherty, editors of the Trade Unionist of Hazelton, were arrested on five counts of criminal libel. The charges were made by Luther C. Smith, a superintendent for the Cox Bros. & Co., who says that attacks were made upon him in five consecutive issues of their paper. They were held in $2,500 bail each.

VOTES FOR CARNIVAL QUEEN

The Contest Closes on Monday Noon, When All the Votes Must Be In.

Owing to the lack of time in arranging for the great Calathumplan Bros. parade this feature of the Elks' carnival will be abandoned. In its place the flower parade will be made doubly more interesting and larger.

Carnival Queen
The vote on the Queen of the carnival, which closes Monday noon next remains unchanged at two o'clock today, from last night. Miss Mamie Bowen still leads with 1,744 votes to her credit and Miss Alice Farnsworth is second with 1,212 votes. The rest are three hundred or more votes behind the two leaders. This is the last count that will be made until the final one on Monday.

Shows Arrive
The Morris & Berger show will arrive over the St. Paul road tomorrow night and the tent will be erected at once and be ready for the public early Monday morning. Chief Hogan and J. F. Sweeney spent this morning in plotting out the positions granted to the different firms wanting privileges on the streets.

Decorations Up
The decorations for the coming week are rapidly being put up. The Elks will themselves have a parade on Tuesday night, led by the famous Indian band and Aunt Amelia and Little Nellie. On Saturday night there will be a grand masked parade which everyone on the street is invited to put a mask on and join. Confetti will be showered upon all paraders. The Elks have engaged a special decorator to come and prepare the queen of the carnival's rig and assist in other decorations. They are paying him $50 for his work.

SIMPLICITY MARKS

SENATOR'S FUNERAL

James McMillan's Body Is Borne to the Grave Without Usual Military Escort.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 16.—Extreme simplicity marked the funeral services over the body of Senator James McMillan, who died suddenly at his summer home in Manchester, Mass. It had been proposed that his thousands of employees should march in procession behind the hearse bearing his body to the tomb; that there should be a military escort and a public funeral commensurate with the senator's career, but in obedience to the wish of the family, this was given up.

The services began at 2:30 o'clock at the Senator's late residence, 515 Jefferson avenue. The large house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many persons were unable to gain admission. Both branches of Congress, the State Legislature and all departments of the state and city government were represented at the services. Governor A. T. Bliss was present with several of his staff. The senatorial delegation included some of the most intimate friends of the dead Senator.

Hopeless Case.

"You have a heart of ice," sighed the young man who had failed to win out.

"Therefore, in the language of the uncouth," rejoined the Boston maid, "you cut no ice with me."

Knew His Man

"Why are you always trying to avoid seeing Brown? You certainly don't owe him money."

"No, but I'm afraid he wants to owe me some."

Muzzled.

"What have you got him muzzled for?"
"I'm goin' ter send him fer pie, an' I don't trust him."—New York Journal.

Social Differences.

"Met Liza Smith just now."
"Did yer? What did she say to yer?"
"Say? Nuffin. I putted her with a glance."

Tailors to Publish Black List.
Austrian tailors have decided to publish quarterly a black list, to contain the names and addresses of unsatisfactory clients and the exact amounts of their debts.

Might Have Been Worse.

Waggles—I had a terrible dream—de-oder night. I dreamed dat a man chased me wif a ax, tryin' to kill me.
Jaggles—Dat's not so bad. S'posin' he'd tried ter git ye to chop some wood wif dat ax!

Evolution.

"Say!" cried the first den in poor Tabby's fur. "We're simply making this cat wild."
"Ha!" said the second.
"Then she's a wild cat, and that makes us golfers."
"How so?"
"Playing on the links."—Philadelphia Press.

Slip of a Young Thing.

—New York Journal.

Easily Explained.

George W. Cable in talking to a Sunday school class of little girls one day said that he had three children at home and half of them were girls. To one puzzled small person he explained blandly that the other half were girls also.

TIDAL WAVE STRIKES A MEXICAN SEAPORT

Fifty Persons Are Killed and Scores Are Missing From Ruined City of Altata.

Cullacan, Mexico, Aug. 16.—The city of Altata, the seaport of this city, was swept by a tidal wave and is in utter ruins. The devastation is complete. Fifty persons are known to have been killed and scores are missing. The city is situated at the mouth of the Cullacan river, where it flows into the Pacific, and a large portion of the shore has been washed away by the wave.

Several small towns north of Altata have also suffered severely, and, communication being shut off, it is not known how great the damage to the northward has been. The water swept far inland and the gold and silver mines which lie near the sea are flooded.

This city escaped the effects of the rush of water owing to its high situation, being indeed upon the site of the ancient Aztec city of Huicohuacan, famous in Mexican history. The low-lying sections, however, were damaged by the sudden rise of the Cullacan river and property at Altata and the other towns where the tidal wave struck cannot be estimated.

Puzzle for the Foreigner.

One may sympathize with a Frenchman who puts faith in any rule as to the pronunciation of "ough" as it is found in the English language. The plural of "potato" may have no terrors for him, but set him to pronounce this sentence: "A rough-coated, dough-faced ploughman strode, coughing and hiccoughing thoughtfully through the streets of Scarborough." The foreigner who could take that fence would deserve immediate nationalization as he alighted.
